

TimeOut

New York

Kids

TOY GUIDE

Holiday gifts for every budget

Volunteering as a family

IT'S GOOD TO BE THE KID

Those were the days: waking up to unwrap your heart's desire, plus a few special surprises. Relive the moment—from the other side of the camera—with our carefully curated selection of toys and treasures. By Jennifer Cegielski Photographs by Jeff Harris

UNDER $25

Chairman of the bored
A balancing game with 24 chairs—stack, topple, repeat. $20; momastore.org

Rock & roll dreams
Kids with audio ambitions can rest easy against a corduroy boom box pillow. $24; pottenybarnkids.com

Totes cool
This canvas collaboration between Vans and NYC fit-artist Keren Richter gives tweens instant street cred. $20; vans.com

Hannah @ home If your daughter is mad for Montana, pacify her with these cozy Ugg-like slippers. $14.50; disneystore.com

This place is a circus A sweet little Japanese calendar tracks the days and months with big-top style. $11; the Fenement Museum

Two by two Classic memory game with hip animal graphics on earth-friendly rubber wood; 12 pairs. $21; Giggle

Bash a burglar
A game of skill for junior crime-fighters—take out the wooden robbers with a marble. $19; warmbiscuit.com

DIY (Pimp it Yourself)
A color-your-own car with add-on magnetic wheels, designed in France. $20; roseandradish.com

For more information on where to purchase, see page 80.