

1-

2-

3-

1. If I Were a Bunny is a touch-and-feel board book perfect for children two and younger. Amy Coe, Westport, 203-227-9900, $12 2. Enamel Child's Dinner Set in the Duck pattern makes mealtime festive for spring. Mackenzie-Childs, mackenzie-childs.com, $72 3. This delicate Beaded Easter Egg, with one dozen foil-wrapped chocolate eggs inside, will prove a holiday keepsake for years to come. Godiva Chocolatier, godiva.com, $25 4. Have a little fun with a pair of these slip-on Chuck Taylor bunny shoes. Chasing Fireflies, chasing-fireflies.com, $35 5. The Puffy Easter Basket with a matching gingham lining is perfect for holding all of the Easter Bunny's goodies. Pottery Barn Kids, potterybarnkids.com, $12 6. Use these Animated Egg Containers to hold jelly beans or other sweet treats. Abigail Fox Designs, Old Greenwich, 203-344-1707, $9 each. 7. The Cottontail Bunny is a snuggly Easter friend. Anthropologie, anthropologie.com, $18

4-

5-

6-

7-

A Basket Full Of..

Help out the Easter Bunny and pack your child's basket with a few of these great spring finds to even out all of the chocolate and sweets. The combination of goodies and gifts will keep your children smiling all day long.